

“Care towards the end of life: research into practice”

University of Cambridge Palliative and End of Life Care Research Group

Tuesday May 1st, 2018.

Seminar Rooms, Institute of Public Health, Cambridge CB2 0SR

Royal College of Physicians CPD approval pending

09.30 Arrive and coffee

10.00 Keynote address. “Using patient experience to shape service development”

Roberta Lovick, Founder, Louise Hamilton Centre, Great Yarmouth

Current research and implications for practice

10.30 “Hospital admissions close to the end of life”. Dr Sarah Hoare

“The experience and management of cancer-related fatigue”. Dr Anna Spathis

11.10 Coffee

11.30 “End of life care for the Muslim community”. Dr Mehrunisha Suleman

“To share or not to share? Data sharing dilemmas in end of life care”. Dr Mila Petrova

Discussion: How can the research be transferred into practice?

12.40 Lunch

Future research and collaboration

13.20 “Transfers from hospice to care home at the end of life”. Dr Tabitha Thomas

“Anticipatory prescribing: the research agenda”. Ben Bowers and Dr Richella Ryan

“Bereavement support in Primary Care”. Dr Pia Thiemann

“Junior doctors and palliative care: preparation and support”. Dr Aamena Bharmal

14.40 Tea and discussion: How can we work together on research to improve care?

15.30 “We can improve care: we must improve care”. Dr Stephen Barclay

16.00 Depart

Registration and payment

There is no cost for the day: refreshments and a sandwich lunch will be provided free of charge. Please register at <https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/palliative-and-end-of-life-care-what-we-know-and-what-we-need-to-find-out-tickets-42708835276>

Travel and venue information

There is no parking at the Institute of Public Health: the Addenbrooke's Hospital multi-storey carpark 2 on map below is 5 minutes' walk away. By public transport, the nearest access is:

Train: Cambridge Station (45 mins walk or 15 mins by taxi/bus).

Bus: The bus station at Addenbrooke's Hospital is 5 minutes' walk from the venue. Use the Citi 1, 7 or 8 from either the town centre or train station.

Park & Ride: Babraham Road Park and Ride number 99 bus runs a service every 10 minutes to Addenbrooke's Hospital bus station.

If you have any questions about the day, please email Angela Harper ah523@medschl.cam.ac.uk

Cambridge Biomedical Campus

Institute of Public Health is on University Forvie Site